

COVID-19 Update

Dear Friends,

In response to the CDC's call for social distancing and San Francisco's shelter-in-place order, San Francisco Center for the Book will be closed to the public from Tuesday, March 17 through at least Tuesday, April 7. Classes taking place during that time will be rescheduled for a future date. We will stay on top of the situation as it unfolds, including any additional government directives, and keep you posted on plans for re-opening in April.

In the coming days, SFCB staff will be reaching out to registered students to discuss rescheduling. Students are also welcome to call us with questions at (415) 565-0545 or email us at info@sfcfb.org. Since staff will be working off-site, there will likely be a delay in response time.

Thank you for your patience and your support as we make these difficult decisions that will impact the revenue of our small organization, our book arts programs, and those artists, instructors, and staff who are supported by them.

With a view toward ensuring that our book arts programs continue beyond this difficult time, San Francisco Center for the Book needs your ongoing support. Please consider making a donation to support SFCB's programs.

We look forward to getting back to the great work of San Francisco Center for the Book as soon as it is safely possible.

Much warmth,
SFCB Staff and Board of Directors
